Depart USA

Monday, March 11

Your fascinating sojourn begins as you depart today from the JFK airport.

Arrive in Cape Town

Tuesday, March 12

En route to the hotel, enjoy a guided orientation tour of Cape Town, a truly stunning city sheltered beneath the dramatic shape of Table Mountain. Arrive at your hotel located near the lively V&A Waterfront. An orientation & dinner will be held this evening at hotel.

Cape Sun Hotel (D)

Cape Town – Table Mountain and The Legacy of Mandela

Wednesday, March 13

Explore the charms of Cape Town as we ride by cable car to the top of Table Mountain for spectacular city views. Descend and travel through the Malay Quarter and the city center for a chance to view and photograph impressive Table Mountain from a distance. The afternoon will include a unique journey through the history of South Africa as we gain insight into the greatness of Nelson Mandela and what South Africa has achieved ever since the nation took up his challenge. We will visit the townships of Langa and Khayelitsha, where cultural values and personal experiences are exchanged.

Cape Sun Hotel (B)

Cape Town – Cape of Good Hope and Jewish South Africa

Thursday, March 14

Today we will tour Cape Town's Jewish Museum and synagogues to understand how modern South Africans incorporate Judaism into their unique culture. In the afternoon, we will take a scenic drive amongst South Africa's steep mountains, secluded coves and sweeping beaches en route to Cape Point. We will explore the southern tip of the Peninsula at the Cape of Good Hope Nature Reserve. The reserve is rich with flora and fauna and you may see baboons, rheboks and Cape Mountain zebras. Savor the stunning views of the coastline where the Atlantic and Indian Oceans meet.

Cape Sun Hotel (B)

Cape Town - Stellenbosch Wine Tour Day Trip

Friday, March 15

Enjoy a special visit to the culturally and historically significant Stellenbosch, a quaint town in the heart of this scenic region filled with South Africa's infamous wineries. Walk through the town and explore the impressive Cape Dutch architecture. Your next stop is at a wine estate where you'll attend a wine tasting session, explore the gardens and purchase local wine. This afternoon is spent at your leisure with options to explore more of Cape Town's V & A Waterfront. Shabbat dinner tonight at hotel.

Cape Town to Johannesburg and Kruger National Park

Saturday, March 16

This morning we will board a short flight to Johannesburg and journey through the beautiful countryside to the picturesque town of Machadodorp. We continue into the Lowveld area to the province of Mpumalanga ("place of the rising sun") and enjoy its sub tropical climate, abundant sunshine and lush covered hills and valleys where tropical fruit orchards abound. Here, we will stop at the colorful roadside stands to meet local merchants offering exotic African fruits and nuts. We arrive at our upscale hotel, situated on the outskirts of the White River, minutes from renowned Kruger National Park. A sumptuous dinner at the hotel is included this evening.

Premier Hotel The Winkler (B, D)

Kruger National Park Safari

Sunday, March 17

Today is devoted to unforgettable game drives to discover Kruger Park's abundant wildlife. A local safari ranger leads you on a morning game drive in open vehicles in search of the park's many residents, including the "Big Five:" lions, elephants, buffalo, rhinos and leopards. You may also spot hippopotamuses, crocodiles, zebras and giraffes. After a break for lunch, we continue our thrilling exploration with an additional afternoon guided open vehicle safari. Later, we return to our hotel where you may relax poolside before enjoying a lavish dinner.

Premier Hotel The Winkler (B, D)

Kruger Park - Mpumalanga - Depart South Africa

Monday, March 18

Depart the Kruger Park area and arrive in Sabie, a small rural town nestled in a deep valley on the escarpment of the Drakensberg mountain range. We proceed to the town of Lydenburg, situated at the foothills of the famous Long Tom Pass and surrounded by the Steenkampsberg and Mauchsberg mountain ranges, the highest points in Mpumalanga. From here continue your drive to Johannesburg Airport where you'll board your return flight home.
